Card From Justice.

Carson, May 10, 1893.

ED. APPEAL—I was very glad to read your editorial this morning in regard to the Judge for this District. The same thing occurred in Virginia City last week, and has occurred there frequently, yet never a word has the Virginia City papers said about the matter, only to say he was "indisposed." It is certainly high time that the rights of litigants and witnesses should be respected.

You will probably recollect that the Tribune of this city made a terrible howl because a certain District Attorney of this county was occasionally too "indisposed" to attend to his duties, but the present Judge is supposed to have too big a "pull" for the Tribune man to run against.

JUSTICE.

The fact that the newspapers of this State have as a rule been under some outside influence, has been a great drawback to Nevada. There has been too much of the slobbering, lickspittle journalism here, and it is time that the press should see that the people get competent public officials, and whenever a public official is anything else than competent the press should have no hesitancy in telling the truth, however unpleasant it may be.

There is not an editor in this State who will find it a pleasant task to speak unkindly of Judge Rising, and we believe that the feeling of the press that his intemperate habits should be covered up, has resulted in a mistaken kindness that has been the worst thing that could possibly have happened to him.

Had the press of Virginia City been kind enough to him to have roasted him years ago when he let his foot slip the first time, the effect would have been good and there might never have been another occasion for criticism.

Stood by His State.

A few evenings since the editorial excursion train passed Sacramento, there was a stop of half an hour and Commissioner Muller who was on board, got off to see his eldest daughter who was there to meet him. She is a very beautiful girl and her face drew a good many admiring glances from the California editors.

"Wonder who she is?" asked the editor of the Themis Times.

"She's a Carson girl," said Major Dennis who was along.

"Gosh but she's pretty," said Cap. Craige.

"Pretty," said Major Dennis, "probably she is down in California, but in Nevada she's considered plain. A girl not any handsomer than that is hardly ever taken to a dance in Nevada, but in Sacramento she's considered a belle. Come up to Reno some day and I'll show you some pretty girls."

"I tell you its the bracing climate of Nevada that will in a few years make the State a grand prize beauty show, and those European nobleman will think their life has been wasted if they don't get their wives from Washoe or Ormsby counties."

Pension Frauds.

Washington, May 10.—The Pension Department has unearthed what appears to be a series of gross pension frauds by W. R. Drew, a pension attorney of Norfolk, Va., who is now under arrest. A year ago he was discovered in frauds and debarred from practice in pension cases. An investigation shows that he had 166 pensions granted, mostly to illiterate negroes, and that 98 per cent of them were fraudulent, the notary's name and seal being forged. The extent of these frauds can be better appreciated when it is stated that all the pensions secured carried arrears. The matter will come up in the United States Court at Norfolk on Monday. The frauds will probably reach $100,000.

A Family Burned.

Warsaw, Ind., May 10.—The village of North Galveston, ten miles northwest of this city, was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The residence of J. J. Jackson and his entire family, consisting of himself, wife, two sons and a daughter perished in the flames. Several other persons were badly burned. Many families lost their entire earthly possessions. The financial loss is estimated at $75,000.

John Henderson, agent for Wanamaker & Brown, will be in Carson, May 14, 15 and 16. Owing to serious illness he was unable to keep his last appointment in this city. See advertisement.

A Notice on Merit.

The following is from Dunlop's Stage News:

The Daily Report of San Francisco says: "Dunlop's Stage News seems to have taken a contract to boom the Grimsers." Yes, indeed it has, and it looks as if the contract is bound to last for a very long time. The Daily Report should itself have taken the contract long ago and in booming Mrs. Joseph R. Grismer (Miss Phoebe Davies) it should have been proud of booming one of the best actresses on the American stage today. Had she been praised by the distinguished dramatic editor of The Report as she will, and has been praised by Dunlop's Stage News, theatregoers in the East would have been better prepared for the shock they received when Miss Davies showed herself for the first time, and without anything but her own dramatic genius captured every critic East of the Rockies. Just as long as Miss Phoebe Davies keeps her end of the contract by her splendid work, just so long will Dunlop's Stage News keep its contract to boom her, and I am pretty sure that when Dramatic Editor W. M. Bunker, who is a very excellent critic, again has an opportunity of looking at the best artist California has yet produced, he will assist me with all his might.

In California the actress who gets the best notices is the one who gives the most wine suppers to the theatrical critics. Mrs. Grismer always depended on her acting for newspaper recognition and didn't always get it; she appears now to be traveling in a section of the country where her real abilities are being properly recognized.

Remarks by Jim.

The following breezy items are from the Lundy Index:

When you need a friend don't pick out a man whose dog won't follow him.

A widow is a woman who has buried her husband; a grass-widow is one who has simply mislaid hers.

The Buddhists have 32 hells in their religion. Some of them have lately been scattered around here, judging from the weather.

The Hawk and Spit Club will meet to-morrow to impeach the Secretary for wiping his nose on his coat tail; nothing but the back of the hand goes.

Some stars are believed to be so far away that 2,000,000 years are required for their light to reach the earth; but the long delinquent subscriber keeps farther off than that.

Ambrose Bierce and Madge Morris have been having an argument as to whether a coyote howls or barks. As we "set" this item we see one of the noxious things on a rock not far off. He neither howls nor barks, but vigorously wobbles his under jaw and spits wind.

A Strange Case.

Orange, N. J., May 10.—The strange case of Miss Mary McCann, who has now lain in a comatose condition at the Memorial Hospital for twenty-five days, continues to attract much attention. On April 13th she was thrown from a South Orange horse car, and since then has not spoken nor had a moment of consciousness.

The last few days signs of approaching consciousness have appeared, however. She now lies upon her cot with her eyes open, moaning and moving her hands in an aimless, nervous manner. Her trouble is concussion of the brain, caused by the shock. The extraordinary features are only in the fact that so long a time elapsed before a return to consciousness. Since her accident Miss McCann has been examined by no less than seventy-five physicians, and has undergone the most critical and detailed examination.

Three Negroes Lynched.

Camden, Ark., May 9.—Three negroes were lynched at Bearden early this morning for murder. An assault was made on Saturday on Jerre Norman, a prominent young business man of that place. Norman died from the wounds inflicted with an ax upon his head as he returned home from his store. At midnight the mob consisted of 300, who were sure they had the right parties, as the pocketbook and other personal effects of Norman were found upon them. The purpose of the assassins was robbery and murder. The negroes were taken from the officers between midnight and dawn. They begged for mercy, but none was shown.

Every one will take in the excursion to Reno next Friday. Tickets may be had of Guy Guinan, Isaac Olcovich, Will Lee, John O'Brien and Hal Howe, for $1.
